

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

February 3, 2012

Mayor Jill Boudreau extends the application filing period for Mount Vernon Planning Commission.

MOUNT VERNON – Mayor Jill Boudreau has extended the application filing period for Mount Vernon Planning Commission from January 31 to February 17, 2012 due to the large number of individuals still interested in applying. Mayor Boudreau is seeking letters of interest and applications from applicants interested in applying for one of two vacancies on the Mount Vernon Planning Commission. These positions are unpaid and have four year terms. One open position will be for an unexpired term ending on December 31, 2012 and the other open position will expire on December 31, 2015.

Commission members on the Planning Commission are volunteers who:

- Are interested in the City of Mount Vernon land use, comprehensive planning, and zoning issues.
- Live within the city limits of Mount Vernon.
- Have a desire to devote time and effort to the responsibilities of being a board member.
- Have a rapport with the community.
- Are able to attend regular meetings currently held on the first and third Tuesday of each month, 6:00 pm, at the Police Court Campus, 1805 Continental Place, and any called meetings as necessary.

For more information contact Jana Hanson with the Mount Vernon Community and Economic Development Department at (360) 336-6214.

Planning Commission Applications can be accessed at www.mountvernonwa.gov, e-mailed or picked up at the Community and Economic Development Department: City Hall, 910 Cleveland Street. The Application and Letter of Interest should be addressed to Mayor Jill Boudreau, P.O. Box 809, Mount Vernon, WA 98273 and received in the Mayor's office no later than closing on February 17, 2012.
