Mayor Jill Boudreau invites residents to Mount Vernon's 122nd birthday celebration

MOUNT VERNON – Mayor Jill Boudreau invites Mount Vernon residents to celebrate the City's 122nd birthday at a FREE family dance party on Saturday, June 30, from 4-7 p.m. at the Mount Vernon High School Cafeteria, 314 N. 9th Street.

The birthday party will feature great music, dancing, birthday cake, punch, coffee, and performances by amazing local dance groups.

The birthday party will kick off the Mayor's Wellness Challenge, a month long series of free activities to inspire the community to healthier lifestyles and ensure that all residents have access to activities and health education. The Mayor's Wellness Challenge will begin in August, and a complete list of events will be available at the birthday party on June 30.
