On June 21, 2019 at approximately 8:01am, a male drove up to an espresso stand in the 2600 block of Henson Road, Mount Vernon. He exited the vehicle, displayed a knife to the barista and demanded money. He then left the area in the same vehicle. Fortunately no one was injured during the incident.

Responding officers captured vehicle information from security cameras and determined the suspect was driving a 1998 BMW 740, white, with Oregon license plates VXV472. Investigators matched the registered owner information with security camera footage and witness descriptions to obtain an arrest warrant for Dennis G. Van Dyken, a 34 year-old Mount Vernon man, for Robbery 1st Degree.

Mount Vernon Police are asking anyone who may know suspect or vehicle whereabouts to contact their local authorities or Mount Vernon Police at:

(360) 428-3211
