

The project is designed with zero net increase to impervious area from the existing site.

Stormwater treatment is managed with multiple strategies, including permeable pavers and soil cell structures, that collect sidewalk runoff and prevent compaction of the landscape soils.

Modular wetlands provide water quality treatment and filtration before being discharged to the City's conveyance system.

STORMWATER TREATMENT